WHAT would the Powers do in the case of war between two or more Middle Eastern countries? Some people tend to believe that it would be fairly easy for them to stop such a war once it has started. In fact nothing is more remote from the truth: time has shown that it has been shown that the Western Powers are altogether unprepared to deal with such emergencies. The only way in which a war between two or more Middle Eastern countries could be stopped is by a diplomatic intervention in a minor way, democratic procedure is so cumbersome that many weeks might pass until anything at all would be decided. The first step would be to convene the Security Council, but even if the Soviet delegate did not veto the whole idea, it would take weeks for any decision at all to be adopted. And many things may happen meanwhile.

THE U.S. and Britain would probably impose an embargo on the supply of arms and perhaps even carry out a blockade which in all probability would be directed against the attacker and not the defender. This would severely affect the course of events to any great extent because ammunition factories are few and far between in the Middle East. The U.S. would not be able to supply the defender with arms, but it would not be able to supply the attacker with arms either. The U.S. would not be able to supply the defender with arms, but it would not be able to supply the attacker with arms either.

Knesset Passes Law Granting Maternity Pay

Journalist Post Knesset Reporter
A Law regulating the conditions under which women may be employed, and guaranteeing them 12 weeks maternity pay at 75% of their normal rate, was passed without opposition by the Knesset last night after introduction by Mr. A. Govrin, chairman of the Knesset Labor Committee. It had passed its first reading in December 1952.

The Law bans the employment of women on work liable to be harmful to their health, and night work except in hospitals, children's homes, etc. and places of entertainment, newspapers, government service where such work is deemed to be essential, and certain other places.

Up to six weeks of the maternity leave may be taken before the birth, and after the birth the mother is entitled to an hour of work from work to nurse her child. Following a miscarriage, a woman is entitled to six weeks leave, on medical orders. Pay is as for other illness. A woman may not work overtime or on the weekly day of rest from the fifth month of pregnancy onwards. Penalties are provided for employers who fail to obey the regulations.

LAW REPORT

THE JERUSALEM POST

August 3, 1954

In the Supreme Court sitting as High Court of Justice before Justices Gleser, Gotsis and Berenson Association of "Sharut" Taxi Drivers, Tel Aviv District, Applicant, v. Mayor of Jaffa-Tel Aviv and Members of the Municipal Council, Jaffa-Tel Aviv. The Controller of Road Transport and Other, Respondents. (HC.154/54).

LEGALITY OF TRAFFIC SIGNS AND JAFFA-TEL AVIV BY-LAW QUESTIONED

The High Court of Justice granted an order nisi calling on the first respondent to show cause why he should not remove all traffic signs within the municipal area of Jaffa-Tel Aviv which designate bus-stops and parking places for taxis. The order nisi was granted on the basis of the fact that the respondent had failed to show that the signs were necessary for the proper regulation of traffic. The court also called on the Controller of Road Transport to show cause why he should not remove all traffic signs within the municipal area of Jaffa-Tel Aviv which designate bus-stops and parking places for taxis.

Case History

On July 8, 1954, the Tel Aviv-Jaffa (Stopping and Parking of Vehicles) By-Laws 5714-1954 were published. Section 7 of these by-laws prohibits any public vehicle from stopping or parking on any road within the municipal area of Jaffa-Tel Aviv except in places designated for that purpose. The applicant association, which is not an omnibus, is a taxi cab drivers' association. It is not a public vehicle as defined in the by-laws.

Section 2 of the said by-laws empowers the first respondent to fix parking places for taxis within the municipal area. Mr. Gotsis, on behalf of the applicant, alleged that no parking places had been fixed so far by the first respondent. Some parking places had been fixed in the past and been allocated exclusively to the members of the second association. In consequence thereof, members of the applicant association had no parking places whatsoever, and were obliged to leave their taxis on "sidewalk" routes only. It was further alleged in the petition that a good parking place had become scarce for taxis, and that drivers were forced to pay up to IL-2,000 for it. Furthermore, under section 7 of the said by-laws the applicant's members had to be steadily in motion, and if a driver wished to stop for a few minutes, he was obliged to leave the municipal area.

Decision

The court granted the application for an order nisi and called upon the respondents to reply within 10 days to the following questions: For Applicant: Mr. D. Gans, Advocate.

Local Expert Cures Baron's Chickens on Morocco Farm

Jerusalem Post Reporter
A. Komarov, a Government expert on chicken diseases, Dr. A. Komarov, has returned from the chicken farm of Baron de Rothschild, near Rehovot, the Moroccan capital, after a two-week investigation into an outbreak of paralysis among poultry there.

Baron de Rothschild applied to the Ministry of Agriculture, through PICA, for the immediate services of Dr. Komarov. It was thought that the chickens had been attacked by Newcastle disease which causes paralysis. The Ministry at once acceded to the request, and Dr. Komarov was able to leave within 48 hours.

Baron de Rothschild had referred to Dr. Komarov by Dr. Gordon, Director of the Poultry Health Trust in Britain. Dr. Gordon had found that the chickens were not suffering from Newcastle disease, an infectious illness, but from a lack of vitamins B₁ and B₂ as a result of being fed unsuitable fodder. He suggested a proper diet, and the presence at the farm of an Israeli chicken-raising expert in three months.

Dr. Komarov became internationally known as an expert on Newcastle disease when, in 1948, together with Mrs. L. Goldschmidt, he developed a vaccine now known as the Haffa Strain Vaccine, at the Government Veterinary Clinic here. The disease was first diagnosed in Newcastle, England, in 1927.

B.M.A. Dominate Maccabi Swim

Brith Maccabi Atid swimmers dominated the Maccabi championship meeting at the Petah Tikva Maccabi pool on Saturday where three new Israeli records were established (as briefly reported on Sunday), and topped the list of competing teams with 243 points.

They were way ahead of their nearest rivals, Hafia, which tallied 91, followed by Petah Tikva with 81. The club also clinched the water polo match with a 7-1 victory over the hosts, Petah Tikva.

In addition to the three high already reported, an establishing record of six minutes 29.9 seconds was set for the women's 4x100 metres breast-stroke by the B.M.A. team. Among other results, the woman swimmer from B.M.A., G. Garbi, won the 100-metre breast-stroke in three minutes 28.8 seconds.

Races for youths were also held and, again, B.M.A.'s youngsters Amel Traubman gained two wins in the Youth "A" section: the 100-metre free-style in one minute 49.2 seconds, and the 100-metre backstroke in 1:51.2.

Zamorsky Cup

The 14-year-old members of Maccabi's Petah Tikva and Ness Ziona clubs were well on top at the Elimelech Zamorsky Basketball Cup tournament on Saturday, and the former gained the trophy, 24-17 (as briefly reported Sunday).

Four teams fought out the preliminaries with the following results: Ness Ziona 28-14, Hadera 24-11, and Rehovot 26-24; Petah Tikva beat Rehovot 31-14; and Hadera 34-15; and Hadera beat Rehovot 34-15. In a men's match, Ness Ziona defeated Hadera by 37-22.

Holon Hapoel Win District Shoot

Holon Hapoel won the team event at the second National Championship District Championships at N'nan on Saturday, capturing 658 points. Rubina were second with 530 and Rehovot third with 507 points. The individual results: T. Refu's of Holon topped the list with 227 points, followed closely by clubmate Zvi-Zion, with 225. Rubina's Daniel Nahum was third with 208. The Cup was presented by the Gesser District Council for the Southern District was awarded to Rehovot.

Tel Aviv Maccabi Stage Boxing Tourney

After a long lapse, Tel Aviv Maccabi staged a boxing tournament last Friday on the roof of its clubrooms, with veteran and novice "pugs" taking part. The best shows were provided in the paperweight match, in which Alex gained the decision over Dali, and in the bantamweight meeting, when Sami gained a very narrow victory over Aramela, in a clever bout.

In bantamweight fights, Levi and Talmacher drew, and so did well-known Fikro and Amn. There were other draws in mid-weight meetings between Farah and Elmelah, and Levi and Cohen, while Maimon beat Cohn in a third contest in this division. Ben Ami and T'ar also snared the honours in a light-weight three-rounder. A featherweight event brought the only clear-cut decision when Bulgarov gained a technical knock-out verdict over Boori. At the same weight, Sazonov was disqualified after three rounds for a dangerous blow featuring heavy-weight champion, Naxrov, and veteran former heavy title-holder, Jona Eliot.

Last Bus Fare Rise 'Covers New Costs'

Instead of replying to the criticisms of the Ministry of Communications, on the basis of which the Ministry feels that no rise in bus fares is justified at this time, the bus cooperatives have asked the Ministry for a series of advertisements in the newspapers. Mr. H. Razili, Director General of the Ministry, has agreed to a Press Conference in Jerusalem yesterday.

In answer to the cooperative demand for a 10% rise in fares to cover the increase in their costs since February, the Ministry submitted a detailed calculation to the cooperatives, showing that the jump in costs amounted to only 1.5%.

However, the items included in the calculations in February, when the last fare increase was granted, are sufficient to cover this 1.5% rise, Mr. Razili said.

Thus, the cooperatives were allowed to add three per cent to their costs as a reserve to cover anticipated 1% in cost, 1.5% for cost-of-living increases, and 1.5% for the sum of the cooperative's expected loss by the Ministry's "wrecking" of the fare.

In addition, by the "rounding off" prices, the Ministry gained another 0.5% for Haifa, 1.5% for Tel Aviv, and 1.5% for the rest of the country. The "advance increase" already received therefore amounts to 3.5% for Haifa, 4.5% for Tel Aviv, and 4.5% for the rest of the country.

In a letter to the cooperatives yesterday, Mr. J. Sapir, Minister of Communications, pointed out that he had received no indication of these figures. The letter states that if the cooperatives choose to make special payments to their members, this would have to be through added efficiency and savings. (Signed) J. Sapir, Minister of Communications.

The Ministry does not feel that changes—even where justified—are advisable more than once a year.

Under the circumstances, the Ministry's reaction to the bus strike threatened for Thursday can only be to take all legal steps to prevent it or to punish those responsible, the letter states.

The public bears the cost of the bus strike, Mr. Razili said, paying the following amounts annually: to Haifa, 11.10; to Tel Aviv, 11.10; to the rest of the country, 11.10.

Call Day For 92 Lawyers

Ninety-two lawyers were called to the Bar in the Supreme Court in Jerusalem yesterday, despite the Emergency Regulations published by the Government. Representatives of the companies are meeting today to decide on further action.

In this reply, the charges of Mr. Razili, the cooperative maintain that at the meeting between representatives of the Ministry and of the cooperatives, it was found that the cooperative's claims of the cooperatives for a fare increase. The cooperative denied the Ministry's charges that needed improvement had been made and that salaries paid to the cooperative members were inflated.

The monthly figure of 11.10, 11.10 for recreation, 11.10 for newspapers and cultural activities, 11.10 for uniforms and 11.10 for a 15th month salary.

Addressing the newly-accredited lawyers, Dr. Olshan said special praise to those who had studied and practiced abroad since they had not only adapted themselves to a new system of law, but also to a new way of life and language. The presence in the Court of lawyers from 15 countries proved that the ingathering of the exiles extended to all classes, he said.

Dr. Olshan told the group that defending the rights of the individual was a task worthy of the highest commendation. But he warned, stressing the spirit of the law for any reason was a most destructive factor. He called upon those lawyers joining the ranks of the Bar to be not only the State to the best of their ability, but also the citizen.

Twenty-three of the new lawyers are members of the first graduating class of the Faculty of Law of the Hebrew University, and another large group graduated from the School of Law and Economics in Tel Aviv. The majority were admitted abroad.

150,000 to Learn Hebrew in Year

The National Council for Hebrew, at its first meeting today, is to discuss ways and means of carrying out the Government's project of bringing the Hebrew language to 150,000 new residents. Professor Ben-Zion Dinnur, Minister of Education and Culture, told a Press Conference in his office yesterday.

The one-year project aims at spreading and strengthening the Hebrew language among the entire nation. Four Cabinet members in addition to Prof. Dinnur are members of the National Council: Mr. I. Rokach, Minister of Interior; Dr. Joseph Burg, Minister of Posts; Mr. B. H. Hirsch, Minister of Police; and Mr. Z. Aranne, Minister without Portfolio.

The Ministry of Education has allocated 150,000 for the project from its own funds, but most of the work will be done by unpaid volunteers—teachers, youth leaders and soldiers. While all the existing educational facilities, including about 1,000 Ulpan classes, will be utilized, many new instruction centres will be established. Adults will be taught Hebrew in 1,000 new classes, and the education departments of the Histadrut, Hapoel Hamizrabi, and of other national organizations have pledged themselves to establish an additional 4,000 Hebrew classes.

A 1,000-word Basic Hebrew reader has been issued by the Ministry; those who complete the book's 50 lessons will receive a certificate from the Ministry and the Hebrew Council. The Press will publish Hebrew lessons and vocabulary items twice weekly. Kol Yisrael will continue its news broadcasts in simple Hebrew, which are estimated to be an estimated 100,000 persons.

Volunteer teachers will each give two lessons a week for a period of 12 weeks. Many organizations and groups will mobilize their members in various activities on behalf of Hebrew.

No Land to Call His Own

MARSHALL, Monday (UPI). — After a week on shore, a group of Port Authorities have Mr. Nicholas Levitky, the man without a passport and with no place to call home, reached his destination. He had been on his way to his 12th trans-Atlantic crossing in over a year.

No country will accept Mr. Levitky, and until someone taking on him he will continue to shuttle the broad Atlantic without ever reaching his destination which seems to be land — any land. He slipped the odd crossing here for the first time in over a year when Port Authorities allowed him ashore while the Brits made a two-week halt. But when the Brits reached another last night, supercargo Mr. Levitky was on hand for the sailing.

Payment to Anglo-Iranian By Persia to be Delayed

TEHRAN, Monday (Reuters). — Payment of compensation by Persia to the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company will not start until two years after the projected new oil agreement has been signed, British sources said here.

British Embassy official confirmed a "substantially correct" statement by Dr. Ali Amiri, Persian Finance Minister, that an agreement on compensation had been reached. Dr. Amiri said the figure would be "less than $300 million."

The Embassy official added, "There are, however, some outstanding matters before agreement can be announced."

Compensation for the Abadan refinery is to be paid by the other seven companies of the oil consortium, but the figure is not likely to be announced, according to oil representatives here.

The British negotiators were understood to have dropped their claim for compensation for loss of future production under the concession agreement due to expire in 1965.

HU Students Set For Tuition Fight

Jerusalem Post Reporter

The Council of the Hebrew University Student Association is to meet tomorrow evening to discuss steps to be taken if fees are increased from 11.10 to a reported 11.30 next year, a spokesman of the Association told The Jerusalem Post yesterday.

A Special Committee was appointed by the Government early last year to fix the fees for 1964-65. Its decision is expected to be made this month. The spokesman noted that no effective student counter-action can be taken since most of the students will be on summer vacation.

About 70 per cent of the students work, many of them self-supporting. The latter must work at least five hours a day to obtain a minimum of 11.10 a month needed for self-maintenance, tuition fees and books, according to the spokesman.

The higher fees would earn the University about 11,500,000, of which about 11,000,000 would be returned to the students as scholarships, he said. This would not meet the University's estimated 11.3 million deficit, he concluded.

MAC Meeting Called On Jenin Incident

An emergency session of the Israel-Jordan Mixed Armistice Commission is scheduled to take place this morning to consider the Jordan complaint on an incident at Jenin, the U.N. spokesman stated yesterday.

The spokesman added that now that the report on the Jenin shooting has been dispatched to New York, General Vagbennik, U.N. Chief of Staff, will turn his full attention towards Israel's and his own proposals to improve the situation along the armistice lines. General Bennek will call for a meeting of both sides to discuss the matter.

There were four border incidents in which armed infiltrators were met by the Defence Forces in the week ending July 28, it has been announced. During the same period, there were several cases of thefts of irrigation pipes and tools.

Nehru a Danger To Africa-Malan

PRETORIA, Monday (Reuters). — The South African Premier, Dr. Daniels, today welcomed the Anglo-Egyptian treaty which, he said, would do much to safeguard the Arab states from the Russian and Indian influences or threats to which they were now exposed.

Asked why he had mentioned India in this connection, Dr. Malan said Mr. Nehru was a danger to Africa, to Africa and South Africa in particular. He said it was noticeable that Mr. Nehru was posing as a leader of the Arab states just as he did in regard to the whole non-European world.

Mr. Nehru, he claimed, did not even shrink from direct encouragement of law-breaking as was shown by his public appeal to Indians in the Union asking them to join forces with the Africans in a mass resistance movement.

Armenian Vicar Buried In Jaffa

JAFFA, Monday. — The Rev. Bernard Barbarian, Armenian Vicar of Haifa and Galilee, was laid to rest in the Armenian cemetery at Givat Alia here, at noon today. The Vicar died yesterday. He had served since 1941.

Funeral service was conducted by Archbishop Ruben Mkrtchian, while the Chief Secretary of the Armenian Patriarchate, Archbishop Hovhannes Abrahamian, delivered the funeral oration. Representatives of the Greek, Syrian and Ethiopian Churches eulogized the deceased.

A message of condolence was received from Dr. A. Kolbi, Director of the Christian Department of the Ministry for Religious Affairs.

The locum tenens Armenian Patriarch, Archbishop Derdarian, is expected to arrive in Jerusalem from the Old City tomorrow to appoint a temporary successor.

T.A. Mayor, Deputies Forced Out Of Offices

Jerusalem Post Bureau

TEL AVIV, Monday. — Mayor Haim Levanon and his three deputies were forced out of their offices this morning by an outbreak of unemployed and students of the Labor Exchange. Trouble also occurred in the Treasury Department of the Municipality and its engineering department, all of which were closed for the day. The "invasion," as it is termed by the Municipality, or the "sit-in" strike, as the Labor Exchange calls it, today entered its second day. The number of strikers doubled today to 600.

The Labour Exchange said that they would send about 1,000 persons tomorrow and it is understood that its executive meeting late last night resolved to fight out the issue with the Municipality.

At noon today, the Mayor and his deputies met at a private home, and resolved to seek Government aid as well as "not to yield to intimidation." The Mayor sent a telegram to the Prime Minister, and to the Ministers of Labour and the Interior asking immediate intervention.

Jerusalem Asks For Advance on Grant

Jerusalem Post Reporter

The Deputy Mayor of Jerusalem, Mr. E. Eliahar, yesterday requested an advance payment from the Government Grant-in-Aid for 1964-65 because of the seasonal decline in revenue. He met the Minister of Interior, Mr. I. Rokach, to discuss the city's financial condition. The Minister promised to give the matter his attention.

Mr. Eliahar had announced to the City Council his intention of pressing for Government payment of rates on the buildings it owns in Jerusalem.

Mr. Eliahar justified his demand for an advance on the grounds that the Government had not yet paid the rates due. It is learned, however, that the tax demand note, amounting to about 11,500,000, has not yet been submitted to the Minister of Interior for approval.

In anticipation of this loan, however, actual work has already begun with the permission of the Minister.

IL.22,200 Damages For Fatal Blast
The family of a worker who was killed in a demolition accident two years ago was awarded IL.22,200 damages yesterday by Mr. Justice A. Kolbi, Ruling President of the Jerusalem District Court.

The worker, Shalom Ben Shimon, had been hired by the five partners of a demolition company, Messrs. Y. Shimon, Y. Amichai, Y. Mirzahi, and Shimon Levy to work on the building site of a metal workshop. During the demolition work, after one of the charges failed to go off, the order was given to continue working. A delayed action explosion killed Ben Shimon. The Court found the partners guilty of negligence and ordered them to pay IL.22,200 to the widow, the seven children and the mother of the victim. The sum that he would have needed for the next 30 years, until his 65th birthday.

The owners of the plot, Messrs. Yitzhak Bibi and Y. Havi, were ordered to pay the family IL.2,000 for damages and funeral expenses. The defendants were also ordered to defray the lawyer's fee for the family. (Times)
